UK & Ireland edition

Education Elephant Ltd. is delighted to bring you the UK and Ireland Edition of the ground-breaking leader in individual assessment, the Woodcock Johnson IV (WJ-IV), written by Frederick A. Schrank, Kevin McGrew & Nancy Mather.

"I would absolutely recommend the WJ-IV to others. Especially for centres who need access to quick testing during a busy day. Test results are easy to read and appropriate for what an educational setting requires for both a screener and access arrangements."

"Having used the Woodcock Johnson over the last year, I would strongly recommend it as an excellent screening and diagnostic tool for students who may have specific learning difficulties. It has also generated the information necessary for completing RACE applications for the certificate examinations."

"The WJ-IV is easy to understand and administer. This test will be all I need to leave me well-equipped in my job."
